

DAVID LIU

David Liu (a.k.a. Dadao Liu) currently serves as chief executive officer and chairman of the board for Canada Film Group, a collective of companies who use technology, media and art to tell stories in the most innovative ways possible.

Timeline:

- 2016 – Hired as CEO of Canada Film Group
- 2015 – Hired as Board Director for the Shanghai Digital Content Industry Promotion Center
- 2014 – Hired as director of the FilmEngine Entertainment film, “The Butterfly Effect” reboot.
- 2014 – Won Best Writer and Best Picture for the Macau micro film contest for the short film, “Dong Yuen Yong,” starring Abrraham Rockferry.
- 2012 – Partner with FilmEngine Entertainment
 - Invited by the Ministry of Culture for the Republic of China to deliver a speech as a VIP of Taipei City Hall.
 - Speaker at the Disney-Pixar exposition in Shanghai, China.
 - Speaker at the China Joy Show in Shanghai, China.
- 2011 – Founder of Cross Road Media for Hollywood films.
- 2008 – Director of the feature film, “The Legend of Silkboy,” starring Jackie Chan, which became an official animation feature film at the Shanghai Expo in 2010.
- 2006 – Hired by Optics Valley of Wuhan, China as a consultant for the animation department.
 - Guest speaker at Wuhan University and Central China University.
- 2004 – Received X-Box Game Development Award from Taipei Government with Canadian DX team.
- 2003 – Produced video game for The Walt Disney Company.
- 2002 – Invited as a VIP guest speaker for the Shanghai Animation and Comic Show, and universities in Shanghai, China.
- 2000-2005 – Served as Founder/President of the College of Interactive Arts and DX Studio.
- 2000 – Dream Cast Development Canadian Office of Dreamforce Studio Taipei.
- 1996-1999 – Animator, Mainframe Entertainment (now called “Rain Maker”).

Education:

2011 – University of Wells (MBA)

1995 – School of Visual Arts in New York, United States
